

Gentlemen:

I request that you DO NOT relax in any way the decency requirements of broadcast Television and Radio. The cable channels are so full of garbage that decent people with children and grandchildren deserve to have our public airwaves clean. As public servants, please do your duty and make programming on the public airwaves suitable for children and those adults who value decency.

Thanks,

Robert E. Tiney